MIXED PUBLIC SCHOOLS,

Interesting Discussion at an Educa-tional Meeting Last Night,

At the educational mass meeting held last night at the Fifth Baptist Church, Representative Kelly of Kansas, in an address, favored mixed public schools. He considered separate schools for blacks and whites criminal nonsense. The Constitution, he said, makes all equal, and he was proud that in his district the schools were mixed. He was followed by Rev. J. S. Cole, who strongly opposed mixed schools, because if they existed colored teachers would be derrived of employment as such be deprived of employment as such.

Rev. George W. Lee declared that he was not only opposed to mixed schools but mixed churches as well. What is needed is money. "I am," he said, "like the boy who, when his mother was praying to God for bread, spoke up and told her to strike for pie."

Short addresses were made by Rev.

W. H. Scott, Rev. W. H. Brooks and others in opposition to mixed schools. Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee of twelve to urge upon Congress the necessity of passing some educational bill for the benefit of the masses. The committee is as follows: Revs. T. S. Robinson, C. H. Phillips, G. W. Lee, W. H. Scott, W. J. Herrard, J. W. Cromwell, J. S. Cowles, Messrs. W. C. Chase, A. McIntosh, Harrison Gordon, S. G. Lampkins.

A Lamp-Light Entertainment, There was a unique Easter festival at finished and there was no gas in the church, although it was contracted for and should have been turned on last night. Those who were in charge of the entertainment borrowed all the lamps they could secure in the neigh-borhood. All the little ones of the Church and Sunday School were given boxes of candy and fruit. These boxes were in the shape of chickens and were arranged upon tables covered with moss and grass. Another interesting feature of the evening was the programme ren-dered by the ladies and gentlemen of the Sunday School.

THE SCHOOL BOARD MEETING. Appointments and Promotions, and

The Board of School trustees met last evening. Trustee Grimke, to whom was referred the petition of certain property owners on Seventeenth street. between P and Q, requesting the removal of the Minor (colored) School Building from that locality, because its presence prevented persons from settling thereabouts, made his report. He rec-ommended that no action be taken in the matter. The objection to the school was made, he said, because it was a colored one. The colored schools are entitled to the same consideration as white ones and no unjust discrimination should be made against them. The assumption that school houses should not be located in neighborhoods where improvements are in progress, but should be relegated to out of the way places, is one that should not be encouraged by the board.

In conclusion Trustee Grimke's re-port stated: "I trust that I am not over-sensitive, but as a self-respecting man I confess I do not care, as a member of this body, to have presented for my consideration a paper such as this, which assumes that the negro is an object to be despised and shunned. Nor do I think it is courteous to the colored members of the board to give any consideration to such papers.

A communication requesting a sldewalk around the Mott building was sidewalk around the Mott building was read and referred. The resignations of Miss Edith West and Mrs. Mary P. King were received. All the colored schools were granted a holiday on Emancipation Day. Miss Laura G. Arnold was appointed a teacher at $400 and Miss Louise Pierre a temporary teacher. Leave of absence without pay was granted to Amelia W. Ringgold, and Miss J. C. Donovan was promoted from second to third grade, vice Miss M. J. Scrivenner deceased. The other promotions were Miss A. E. Walker, from third to fourth grade: Miss Margaret Bagley, from second to third; Mrs. A. M. Fair, from third to fifth; Miss Cora Assire, from first to third, and Miss Susan Robinson, from $500 to $550.

#500 to $550.

Francis Smith was appointed a temporary teacher at $500 in the second division; Miss J. H. Spies, a temporary teacher in the second grade; Miss A. E. Hashup, temporary teacher second grade; Miss Martha Fawcett, a substigrade; Miss Martha Fawcett, a substi-tute teacher; Miss Hayden, a temporary teacher, and Miss Sarah Jackson, a tem-porary teacher in the Mott building. The resignation of Mrs. M. P. Keene was accepted. Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Miss M. J. Scrivenner were adopted, and the committee on a school ship for the use of the public schools reported encourage nent and progress.

DISCUSSING THE BAILBOADS.

The regular monthly meeting of the East Wash'ngton Citizens' Association was held last evening, Mr. George F. Dawson presiding. The railroad question as affecting the east end was discussed.
The Chandler bill regulating the B. & O. road, and locating the tracks and depot north of H street was regarded as acceptable. The bill to incorporate the Columbia Central Railroad Company, which is to be operated by steam and which is to be operated by steam and to enter the city across the Eastern Branch of the Potomac and thence by F and Fifteenth streets to Maryland avenue, was not favored by the com-mittee. It was recommended that the secretary of the association be directed Traction Railway was also favored.

Mr. Hubbell argued in favor of the
